Additional information:

- ❖ The first hour of every class is the synchronous portion of class, with a teacher live in a digital platform (ZOOM, BLEND groups, or TEAMS). The remaining time in each class period is for asynchronous learning. 2nd and 6th period are exceptions because lunch interrupts the class period. For 2nd and 6th periods, the first 30 minutes are asynchronous and the hour after lunch is synchronous.
- ❖ Students are allotted an hour for lunch in the event that students need to travel to access meal distribution sites.
- ❖ Students are expected to log in with their advisory teacher for an SEL lesson or iReady enrichment/intervention on a daily basis, as indicated on the schedule.
- ❖ If students have questions for teachers about content, the synchronous portion of the class is an appropriate time to ask questions or clarify information. If questions arise outside of the synchronous class period, teachers may be accessed through email or TEAMS.
- ❖ Students will have access to all of the material in BLEND at all times during the day and week.
- ❖ Teachers will facilitate small group intervention and enrichment groups on Fridays.
- ❖ On Fridays, students will attend synchronous sessions for Success and Fine Arts only.

Student Expectations:

- ❖ The daily student schedule is from 8:15 - 3:46 with built in breaks and a lunch period.
- ❖ Attendance will be taken within the first ten minutes of every period. In order to be marked present, a student must meet all the expectations determined by the Texas Education Agency, which can be found in the Distance Learning Student Handbook.
- ❖ Email communication to your teachers should come from your aisd email account, not your personal email account.
- ❖ Please adhere to the student code of conduct and acceptable use policy as you interact with students and teachers online.
